

Orange County

ORANGE COUNTY: A great place to visit, live and play!

Orange County is located approximately 30 miles south of downtown Los Angeles and 90 miles north of San Diego. Its central location makes it an excellent place to base a Southern California vacation. The county itself spans over 700 square miles of some of the best known and exciting sights in California.

VISIT!

A hub of fabulous attractions, great shopping, and beautiful landscapes, Orange County is one of the best places in the nation to visit.

SPORTS

Orange County offers sports fans the best in professional sports. The Mighty Ducks of Anaheim and the World Champion Anaheim Angels make their home in my district. Edison International Field of Anaheim and the Arrowhead Pond not only host professional sports teams, they also serve as major entertainment venues, hosting hundreds of concerts and performances each year.

FAMILY FUN

Orange County is probably best known for Disneyland, but the recent addition of the California Adventure Theme Park and the other local favorite, Knott's Berry Farm, make the county a premier family entertainment destination.

LIVE!

BUSINESS

Orange County is a growing metropolis with an booming housing and construction market. Some of the nation's most influential companies call OC home including Toshiba, Pacific Sunwear and Pacificare.

EMPLOYMENT

Despite recent economic downturns, Orange County has maintained a relatively low rate of unemployment at a little over 3 percent.

EDUCATION

Home to over 11 public and 7 private colleges and universities, including Chapman University and California State University, Fullerton. Orange County remains in the national forefront of scientific research and higher education. Congresswoman Sanchez is the first Latino to serve on the Chapman University Board of Trustees.

PLAY!

OUTDOORS

With approximately 357 miles of trails and bikeways, Orange County is perfect for outdoor enthusiasts looking for a little adventure. If you are a sun worshiper, you'll find nine beaches to enjoy and over 42 miles of coastline to explore!