

May 28, 2004- Sanchez Statement on Memorial Day

May 28, 2004 Memorial Day 2004

"This weekend, hundreds of thousands of veterans will descend on Washington to celebrate the dedication of the newest memorial in our nation's capital. This long-overdue tribute to those who made the greatest sacrifice for our freedom in World War II reminds us of the many fallen soldiers in our country's history as well as our gratitude to them.

"I would like to personally thank all the men and women who have served in our armed forces over the decades, during times of both war and peace. And as we remember those from times past, let us also remember, with prayers and best wishes, the American soldiers and their families who are making the same sacrifices around the world today."
